

Gregory Johnston, Jr.

3021 Curtis Drive | Amarillo, Texas 79109 | (806) 290-3664 | johnston.greg@gmail.com

Objective

To develop and encourage the development of technologies that increase the productivity of mankind

Education

West Texas A&M University, Canyon, TX

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with Great Honor

December 2010

Grade Point Average: 3.86/4.00

Amarillo College, Amarillo, TX

Associate of Arts in Religious Studies with Honor

May 2008

Grade Point Average: 3.78/4.00

Cumulative Undergraduate Grade Point Average: 3.81/4.00

June 2010 Law School Admission Test score: 156

Skills

I am a proficient logician, organizer, planner, and technical writer with strong interdepartmental leadership experience and exemplary verbal communication skills. Furthermore, I am well versed in the following technologies, applications, and operating systems:

- Visual Basic (VB6 – .NET 4.0)
- ASP.NET
- C#
- AJAX
- JavaScript
- T-SQL
- (X)HTML
- XML
- CSS
- SVN
- Windows (2000 – 7)
- Windows Server (2000 – 2008 R2)
- SQL Server (2005, 2008 R2)
- IIS (6.0, 7.0, 7.5)
- MS Access
- MS Office (2003 – 2010)
- Adobe Photoshop
- Visual Studio (6.0 – 2010)
- Telerik RadControls for ASP.NET AJAX

Publications

Johnston, G. (2011). Searching in Vain: The Failed Attempt to Find Ronald Reagan in 2008. An Analysis of the Republican Presidential Nominees and the General Election. Politics, Bureaucracy, and Justice. 2(2), pending

Personal

- Proud husband and father of four (ages 4 months to 6 years)
- Vice President of the Panhandle Bluegrass and Old-Tyme Music Association, 2007 – 2009
- Music Director of the Christian Lighthouse Church, 2006 - 2008
- Member of Phi Theta Kappa, the National Honor Society of the Two Year College

Relevant Work Experience

Senior Software Developer and Systems Administrator, Enviro-Ag Engineering, Inc.

April 2007 to Present

- Created a user-friendly web-based data and facility management solution for clients such as dairies, feedlots, and poultry facilities across the Texas Panhandle and the nation
- Developed a money saving time and project management system from the ground up
- Oversaw the planning and organization of software development
- Administered the Windows-based network and provided technical support
- Served as a knowledge-base for Microsoft Office programs
- Prepared technical documents and graphics for digital and printed publication

Service Technician, The Computer Ace

April 2009 to Present

- Delivered personal computer technical support to home users
- Supported business workstations and servers on-site
- Strove to make sure that the problems were fully and actually resolved by determining the exact cause of the problem, finding the correct solution, and implementing it promptly

Intern, The Panhandle Regional Planning Commission

September 2009 to January 2010

- Wrote a 21 page guide for renewing Hazard Mitigation Plans in the Texas Panhandle
- Designed and implemented an up-to-date website

Owner, Buckey's String Shack

May 2007 to December 2008

- Purchased a music store with a long history in Amarillo
- Provided top-notch equipment, service, and instruction to beginners and experts
- Managed customer relations, bookkeeping, advertising, and purchasing

Student Technician, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station – Bushland, Entomology Lab

May 2006 to April 2007

- Assisted in research projects by collecting and analyzing data from the field
- Created a database and Windows program for managing statistical data collected from beetles of the Carabidae family
- Maintained six large greenhouses and many insect colonies

Software Support Representative, Sitel Corporation

January 2004 to September 2004

- Provided Dell customers with detailed phone-based support regarding all software that came on their new Dell PCs, as well as how-to training
- Resolved problems and eliminated error messages in a timely manner